Destroying the JW Foundation

The excellence of this book is not so much in textual criticism or translations, in which it errs greatly regarding ‘the Greek’ of I John 1.18, also recommending false bibles like the JW publications of the 1901 ASV and Bible in Living English, when they have also published the KJV, but in the direct assault on the Watchtower organisation itself.

Their own publications show them up as proven false prophets, and any Witness working through the questions and answers could only remain in the organisation if suffering extreme cognitive dissonance.

A short work, it will successfully equip with ‘focused fire’ on the foundation of the Witnesses belief.

I) The Christian Church and the Watchtower (pp. 1-26)

The real question with JWs is, “who has religious authority?”

A JW cannot pray with a Christian, since he believes he worships Satan.

The Watchtower printed both the 1901 ASV, also, The Bible in Living English.

Except for a few individuals, Christianity is claimed to have vanished shortly after the death of the twelve apostles, until Charles Taze Russell restored it in the late 1870s!

The generation who witnessed Christ’s invisible return in 1914 will not pass away before Armageddon (Mt 24.34)!

Christ ceased to exist when he died.

II) The Watchtower, the Word of God, and Prophecy (pp. 27-90)

JWs claim King Nebuchadnezzar captured Jerusalem in 607 BC.

God is claimed to have inspired the Great Pyramids of Egypt.

III) Is Jesus YHWH? (pp. 91-105)
